By Jason Stopa Consulting Editor

The month of May hit the ground running. Frieze, Nada and a bunch of group shows all over the place. This is the last big push before summer hits and the art world ventures off to Venice, The Hamptons and Switzerland. Meanwhile, the shows still go on. On our radar was "Xstraction" at The Hole, which captures some major hitters in contemporary painting including Sam Moyer, Wade Guyton and Wendy White. 1. "XSTRACTION" is on view at The Hole until June 20 with a long roster.
